Thank you for sharing it. It is wonderful. My name is Jazmine Early. I live in Sterling Heights. Due to the fact that our city got too liberal, and our government is targeting Christians, last year, my husband and I took the decision that I would get involved with government. Today was a sad day after seeing how government is making it harder and harder for people of faith to live in freedom. However, to be around Christians and reading where true Christians stand, motivates me to continue the good fight. I am a simple wife, mom and overall a Christian that wants to glorify God. Body: I know you really didn't ask for input but as your friend I have to strongly advise against taking action on this issue. There are a few reasons: 1. This email violates the rules and spirit of trust that is expected in caucus gatherings. I know this isn't something you want to hear necessarily but it should be said. If you violate the trust of the others within the caucus you risk not only any relationship with the speaker you also risk any relationships with other members because they won't be able to trust you. By doing this you also give the speaker a legitimate reason to kick you out of caucus which not only will mean you won't be included in caucus meetings but could also lead to losing office allotment, central policy staff, etc... Why give them an opening to take you out if you can avoid it? I can guaranteeCotter wants you to do this,because it causes many more problems for you than it does him. Why give him that opening? 2. Body: Lunch time reading...K/B/J - if you can take some time and go thru this I would appreciate it; I want it before the end of the day... It's hard at times to know what should and should not be shared with people about the mechanical processes of official government, nor what is even worth sharing, and how it affects them. As a representative my first duty is of course to God, then to my family, then my home district, and finally to the great people of our state that truly want a voice that is uncompromising in its advocacy for the cause of freedom and liberty. All of this should be done with a sense of decorum and civility that is due the respect of the office with which I have been entrusted. This issue I need to bring to light today is that of the seat selection process in the House of Representatives. While the seat one sits in may seem trivial, there are much deeper issues going on at the root of what really happens. I wish I could report that it was a joyous occasion, but unfortunately, it was colored by an abdication of our State's laws that will forever cast a shadow over what should have been a wonderful experience. As you can see in the law attached below, in 1893, previous elected Representatives had laid out in the fabric of our laws a clear system for picking the seats of Representatives on the floor of the House chamber. My district has entrusted me to make good decisions and use personal discernment on important matters of law and public policy; surely, this trust would also extend to the ability to choose my own seat on the floor of the house, as proscribed by a law written over one hundred years ago! Timestamp: 8/8/2015 2:09:41 PM(UTC-4) From: [REDACTED] Joshua Cline To: [REDACTED] Ben Granam Direction: Incoming		Subject: No subject Body: How Todd would respond to your text: Ummm no hostility here, but bullshit. You need to get it done now. We have a process for that and we need to follow the process; right now we are just coming across to these guys like monkeys fucking a football; i can't stand around and wait for you to get your shit together. You say you can get it done, but repeatedly do things they way you want; I can't keep repeatedly ask and ask, and ask, to get it done; when I hand something off I should not have to come back an administrate you. When I handed off to Michelle, Miranda, Melissa or Karen I did not have to come back around and ask and ask and check up; you have to administrate yourself and I can't have you not following through. When I say it and want it and mean it and I want it and I mean it; so get it done. We have to get this done in a way that reflects well on my leadership in the movement and for the cause of liberty. What you do reflects on me and when you do it and say it shows that we don't have our shit together. So follow the process and let's move on this. I still don't think he sent it. Too convenient. And why would she reply or ask questions to your personal emails. And only two staff members. Still confusing. I think it's a ploy to see if any of you are spies/holes/informants and leaking information. It isn't breaking anywhere so...

I'm still sort of thinking that the email you guys got was a glimpse of the control burn. I'm thinking that it maybe didn't go out and instead it is a ploy to determine which one of you are releasing info to me and others. The hacking? It has been brought up that I have hacked into his Nationbuilder, so planting the seed. Because this person emailed or called and said I think he has been hacked, right? Thoughts?

Sent	To: [REDACTED] Kyle Melinn Direction: Outgoing	9/10/2015 11:36:17 AM(UTC-4)		Sent	I was reluctant to testify because I really would prefer to avoid the spotlight. Testifying in front of 15 tv cameras isn't my idea of a good time. I cooperated fully with the investigation and turned over relevant documentation. But yes, if leadership believed it was necessary for me to testify I would have.

Sent	To [REDACTED] Joshua Cline Direction: Outgoing	7/3/2015 12:58:59 PM(UTC-4)		Sent	Nope. Keith talked to Joe and Cindy was talking to Todd while she was with them. Which she generally doesn't do. And she said "we can fix the key cards tomorrow.." which is funny because they can't... its a holiday. And she asked Keith a week or so ago to remove Todds keycard access. He thought he couldn't but Matt did yesterday

Sent	To: [REDACTED] Todd Courser Direction: Outgoing	7/1/2015 9:10:37 PM(UTC-4)		Sent	I made a emergency call to their support since my contact isn't available right now. I guess there's a feature that I wasn't aware of that will autocomplete the form so sign ups will only need to make one click instead of filling out the whole form. NB does so many cool things even I cant keep track of them all. We can implement this on the next email to make sure people don't need to fill out the form. Lets just work through the process and see where we end up and evaluate from there.

Sent	To [REDACTED] Todd Courser Direction: Outgoing	6/17/2015 10:21:37 AM(UTC-4)		Sent	In general I feel like you would support the concept of allowing local govs to post their notices online because it's a cost saving technique but I know you also said before that a lot of your older clients don't have Internet access. Essentially it incrementally phases out paper notices until 9 years from now its totally online. I would just hear what he has to say and just let him know it's still in Local Gov and you'll look into it more.

Case 1:18-cv-00874-GJO-PJG ECF No. 17-1 filed 12/28/18 PageID 518 Page 216 of 301

Sent	To [REDACTED] Todd Courser Direction: Outgoing	5/20/2015 1:24:40 AM(UTC-4)		Read	I don't know what their lives about trying to kill me. This kind of stuff never stays hidden... its going to blow up and I can't help cover it up. If it wasn't true I would go to the end of the earth to defend you but I can't help you cover it up. My best advice consider resigning. You may be able to protect Cindy and her family and your family. I'm sorry I really am. I've prayed on it and I just dont feel right with it.

Sent	To [REDACTED] David Leduc Direction: Outgoing	4/17/2015 3:21:59 PM(UTC-4)		Sent	Right. I would've taken a bullet for him too but he definitely doesn't feel the same way about us. If anything he blames us for his problems getting anything done in Lansing. Which is his damn fault! If he wants to crap on everyone he's not gonna get anything done. That's just reality.

Sent	To: [REDACTED] Todd Courser Direction: Outgoing	2/7/2015 4:52:32 PM(UTC-5)		Sent	Sure. We had campaign advertising going through your account and we can only have one payment method per account so in order to keep everything legal and billing proper I just set it up under my account. If I can't get this thing figured out with my account shortly I will just switch business advertising back to your account. When we want to do more campaign advertising we will figure that out then.

Facebook	[REDACTED] Ben Graham 		Timestamp: 5/20/2015 10:24:28 AM(UTC-4)	Body: I'm going to talk to my HR department and speakers chief of staff. What he's asked me to do may be illegal which would be a major violation of my employment with the state so I'm going to tell them and ask what I should do. I can't stay so hopefully they find me another position or maybe they'll give me severance.	Yes
